Miss Campbell Flies to Guatemala

MISS SADIE B. CAMPBELL, dean of women at Teachers College, took to the airlines, January 28, for a five-week trip to Guatemala and Mexico.

Dean Campbell

Flying from Des Moines to New Orleans and next to Guatemala City, she made daily excursions to picturesque, outlying towns. Among other things, she saw the ruined cities of Uxmal and Chicken-Itza, the hemp fields bordering Merida, Yucatan, and Lake Atitlan, the "bluest blue lake" in the world.

Favorite visiting headquarters were the Guatemalan market places where the Indians would carefully lay out their products, be they calla lilies, onions or prize pigs.

As all vacations come to an end, Miss Campbell soon found herself on a plane again—this time bound for Mexico. And before she knew it, she had arrived back at Cedar Falls—just in time for advance registration for the spring quarter!

Students Discuss Religion

TEACHERS COLLEGE STUDENTS CONSIDERED a variety of subjects — ranging from methods of prayer to drinking, smoking and smooching — at the annual Religious Emphasis Week, February 2 to 7 inclusive.

Ten visiting theologians, writers and lecturers led five days of round tables, lectures and question-and-answer periods. Among them were the Rev. Bryan S. W. Green of the Holy Trinity Church of London, Professor G. Baez Camargo, of Mexico City, Edward G. Carroll, Negro theologian, and Mrs. Anna B. Mow, Bethany Biblical Seminary instructor and former missionary.

The week, which followed the theme, "A New Axis," was arranged by Dr. Vernon Bokein, director of the Bureau of Religious Activities, and a student-faculty committee of 100 members. Student chairman were Richard Simpson of Webster City and Margaret Logan of Ruthven.

Kurtz Publishes Four Compositions

DR. EDWARD KURTZ, HEAD OF THE Teachers College music department, has had four compositions accepted for publication by the Belwin Company, New York.

They include two organ selections, "Adagietto" and "Sarabande," and two women's vocal ensembles, "Vine Covered House" and "My Heart is a Garden." Mrs. Kurtz wrote the words for the vocal ensembles.
